Banquet: This year's, year-end awards Banquet and meeting will be held at Royal Star in Mt. Vernon on January 11th. Lola is waiting on final points for High Point and is asking that if you are getting awards and would like something specific to please call or email your wish list to her.

Paint Show: We still have not finalized judges but have come up with an estimate to offer for payment ($500/ Day or $1,000 for 2 ½ days and 2 sets of classes.) Once Judges are finalized we can put an ad in the directory.

Promotion: Facebook is very well liked and keeps receiving new members to the group. The more we promote and share the page the more people see what we are doing. ## Achievements of top horses and exhibitors celebrated at APHA World Show

Most noteworthy honors bestowed upon high point and all-around competitors

FORT WORTH—The American Paint Horse Association recognized the top equine and human athletes of the APHA World Championship Paint Horse Show with High Point and All-Around honors. A total of 935 horses and 2,583 entries were judged over the course of the association's premier 11-day show, which was held November 6-16 at Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas.

In addition to naming 168 World Champions over the course of 11 days, APHA held a total of 242 classes and paid out more than $500,000 in cash and prizes.

All World and Reserve World Champions received custom Gist Silversmiths trophy buckles to commemorate their win; with Top 5 finishers all receiving prize packages due in large part to the generosity of sponsors.

Amateur, Novice Amateur and Open division high point and all-around awards were presented to the most outstanding equine and human athletes. Each received a bevy of prizes for their achievements, including cash, saddles, custom trophies, tack, grooming supplies, embroidered gear and photographs. Hart Trailers awarded one-year use of a three-horse aluminum slant-load trailer to the All-Around Horse.

APHA Paint Alternative Competition (PAC) program expansion adds youth-specific category designations and overall versatility champion title

Thirteen new categories provide youth opportunities for achievement and recognition

FORT WORTH—The Paint Alternative Competition (PAC) program offers Paint Horse owners opportunities to establish permanent performance records for their horses at events outside of traditional APHA-approved shows. PAC is open to almost any type of activity as long as the competition is sponsored by an organization that keeps official records on the performance of all horses entered in the event. In addition to potentially increasing the value of their horses, PAC participants are also eligible for year-end awards and titles from the American Paint Horse Association (APHA).

Beginning January 1, 2014, an exciting expansion of the popular program adds 13 youth-specific categories. For the first time, youth (18 & under) will be able to compete amongst their peers.

“Our Executive Committee understands the importance of allowing a larger spectrum of participants with an opportunity to receive recognition for their hard work,” said PAC Coordinator Karen Utecht of the program changes approved by the Executive Committee.
