Newsworthy News

❄ John and Dani Mullaney sold their Overo Paint Mare, Gunslingers Touch "Reign" to Larry and Robin Robinett -Morris of Plainfield, Indiana. Reign is a three time reserve world champion. Robin and Larry plan to show extensively in the Midwest and also at the 2011 APHA Fall Championship World Show.

Dani says, "It was a bittersweet sale and let me tell you it was very hard to do. We have many fond memories with Reign that will be forever lasting. Reign 'convinced' us to show at the World level. She is an awesome mare and we look forward to following her career".

PNPNC Members World Show Success

APHA Fall Championship World Show

Fall World Show by the Numbers

The Fall World Championship show concluded November 13 after a 10-day run full of great competition, talented horses and plenty of fun. According to the Performance Department’s tally, 956 horses entered, 2,013 entries competed and 42 states were represented as were Canada, Australia and Mexico.

Look for more details about all of the happenings in the February issue of the Paint Horse Journal or visit aphaworldshow.com to see results and read stories from the show.

Upcoming registration/nomination deadlines

The year-end deadline for foal registrations is December 31. Join the thousands of APHA members who take advantage of our easy APHA online registration service. If you own a digital camera and have internet access, you can save time, postage and hassle when registering your Paint babies.

| Registration Fee | Member | Non-Member |
|-------------------------|--------|------------|
| Regular Registry | | |
| October 1–December 31 | $50 | $95 |
| Yearling | $100 | $200 |
| Solid Paint-Bred | | |
| July 1–December 31 | $25 | $70 |
| Yearling | $50 | $100 |

And don't forget, the first Gold/Silver/Bronze Breeders' Futurity mare nomination deadline for 2011 foals is December 31. Forms are available at apha.com/breedersfuturity.

Find APHA on Facebook

If you are a Paint Horse lover and want to join a fun community where you can post pics, interact with followers or just hang out and enjoy being part of a group that shares your love of the breed, then join the official American Paint Horse Association Facebook page.

1. Click on the Facebook logo on the right and sign into your account. If you don't have an account, create on. It's easy and free.
2. In the search box at the top of the page, type in "American Paint Horse" or "Official American Paint Horse" and the page will pop up with the logo.
3. Or, you can go directly there by clicking on this link - facebook.com/americanpainthorse.
4. At the top of the American Paint Horse Association page (next to the name), click on the "Like" icon.

Exhibitor Card Renewal Time is Here

As the end of the year approaches, so does the expiration date on all Amateur, Novice Amateur and Novice Youth cards. Renewal forms are being mailed to current program cardholders; or you can print off the forms from apha.com and fax, e-mail or snail-mail them in to us. You can even renew your membership on the same form!

Living in Washington State

Written by Jeff Foxworthy

If you've worn shorts, sandals and a parka at the same time, you live in Washington.

If you've had a lengthy telephone conversation with someone who dialed the wrong number, you live in Washington.

If you measure distance in hours, you live in Washington.

If you have switched from 'heat' to 'A/C' and back again in the same day, you live in Washington.

If you can drive 75 mph through 2 feet of snow during a raging blizzard without flinching, you live in Central, Southern or Eastern Washington.

If you design your kid's Halloween costume to fit over 2 layers of clothes or under a raincoat, you live in Washington.

If driving is better in the winter because the potholes are filled with snow and ice, you live in Washington.

If you know all 4 seasons: almost winter, winter, still winter, and road construction, you live in Washington.

If you feel guilty throwing aluminum cans or paper in the trash, you live in Washington.

If you know more than 10 ways to order coffee, you live in Washington.

If you know more people who own boats than air conditioners, you live in Washington.

If you stand on a deserted corner in the rain waiting for the "Walk" signal, you live in Washington.

If you consider that if it has no snow or has not recently erupted, it is not a real mountain, you live in Washington.

If you can taste the difference between Starbucks, Seattle's Best, and Tullys, you live in Washington.

If you know the difference between Chinook, Coho and Sockeye salmon, you live in Washington.

If you know how to pronounce Sequim, Puyallup, Aberdeen, Issaquah, Snoqualmie, Wenatchee, Spokane, Umpqua, Yakima, Snohomish and Willamette, you live in Washington.

If you consider swimming an indoor sport, you live in Washington.

If you never go camping without waterproof matches and a poncho, you live in Washington.

If you have actually used your mountain bike on a mountain, you live in Washington.

If you think people who use umbrellas are either wimps or tourists, you live in Washington.

If you buy new sunglasses every year because you cannot find the old ones after such a long time, you live in Washington.
